Subject: [EXTERNAL] RE: Request for RQ17-002 due date extension to July 21, 2017

Larry-

My understanding is that need for the extension stems from your efforts to complete searches needed to fully respond to Question 8 and that the Question 8 materials drive GM's response to Question 13.

Given the arrival of the other materials this week we concur with your request for an extension to July 21, 2017. However, we will be unable to extend beyond that point as the investigation timeline will be impacted.

Please keep us posted on your progress.

Sincerely,

Greg

Subject: Request for RQ17-002 due date extension to July 21, 2017

Hi Greg,

Per our discussion today, I am writing for a request to extend the due date for RQ17-002. We would like to extend the due date to July 21, 2017 for the final submission.

We plan on submitting responses to questions 2,3 and 4 by June 30, 2017. The final submission on July 21, 2017 will include responses to questions 8 and 13

Thanks,
Larry
