This memo documents a January 12, 2018 request from Volkswagen for a partial extension of time to respond to the Office of Defects Investigation (ODI) Information Request letter for RQ17-009 to February 9, 2018. The original due date for VW's answer to the Information Request was January 16, 2018.

On January 12, 2018, ODI granted Volkswagen's request for a four (4) week extension. The answer for Requests 8, 9 and 12 (partial) is now due on February 9, 2018. The answer for Requests 1 thru 7, 11 and 12 (partial) remains due on the original date of January 16, 2018. Exemplar parts under Request 10 will be shipped under separate cover.

ODI is granting this request for a longer than normal extension period due to the translation of German language documents which are responsive to Requests 8, 9 and 12 (partial) in the Information Request letter.
