This memo documents a request dated August 1, 2019 from Hyundai Motor America (HMA) for an extension of time to respond to the Office of Defects Investigation (ODI) Information Request letter for EA19-001, due to level of effort needed to respond to IR. The original due date for the response to the Information Request is August 30, 2019.

ODI and HMA had multiple follow-up discussions to evaluate the extension request. On September 18th, 2019, ODI granted HMA's proposed extension for the Information Request letter response. HMA will submit the full response by October 4th, 2019.
