A close-up photograph of a metal drill bit, likely made of high-speed steel, showing its double-flute design. The bit is positioned horizontally and is illuminated from the side, creating bright highlights on its polished surfaces and deep shadows in the flutes. A small, rectangular white label is affixed to the middle of the bit, featuring the letters 'RR' handwritten in red ink. The background is dark and out of focus, with some metallic components visible in the lower right corner.
