Re: Request for Confidential Treatment – Triumph Motorcycles
America Ltd. (Triumph) – Voluntary Submission RE NHTSA
Investigation No. PE21-017

Dear Mr. Raviv:

This letter serves as the request for confidential treatment by Triumph Motorcycles America Ltd. (Triumph), with respect to the enclosed letter to the Office of Defect Investigation (ODI) concerning the above referenced investigation. Triumph is voluntarily submitting this information.

In accordance with 49 CFR 512.5, Triumph is submitting the information with the file name and content of the file marked "CONFIDENTIAL BUSINESS INFORMATION." The contents include descriptions of Triumph's field inspection of customer motorcycles and Triumph's assessment of these motorcycles related to NHTSA Investigation No. PE21-017. Also enclosed is a Certificate in Support of Confidentiality. To facilitate social distancing due to COVID-19, NHTSA is treating electronic submissions, using email or secure File Transfer Protocol (FTP), as an acceptable method for submitting confidential business information. See <https://www.nhtsa.gov/coronavirus/submission-confidential-business-information>. Because Triumph is submitting via the U.S. Department of Transportation's "Secure Large File Transfer Solution" (SLFTS), the request includes a single copy of the confidential file.

As set forth below, Triumph requests confidential treatment for the enclosed materials on the grounds that they contain trade secrets and/or confidential, proprietary information that is closely held by Triumph and would likely subject Triumph to substantial competitive harm if disclosed. See 49 C.F.R. § 512.3(c)(1) and (2); Food Marketing Institute v. Argus Leader Media, 139 S. Ct. 2356, 2364 (2019) (FOIA Exemption 4 protects information that "is customarily kept private, or at least closely held, by the person imparting it"); National Parks & Conservation Ass'n

v. Morton, 498 F.2d 765, 770 (D.C. Cir. 1974) (“commercial or financial matter is ‘confidential’ . . . if disclosure of the information is likely to . . . cause substantial harm to the competitive position of the person from whom the information was obtained.”); Public Citizen Health Research Group v. FDA, 704 F.2d 1280, 1288 (D.C. Cir. 1983) (a trade secret is a “secret, commercially valuable plan, formula, process or device that is used for the making, preparing, compounding, or processing of trade commodities and that can be said to be the end product of either innovation or substantial effort”); Center for Auto Safety v. Nat’l Hwy. Traffic Safety Admin., 93 F. Supp. 2d 1, 16 (D.D.C. 2000), remanded for further proceedings, 244 F.3d 144 (D.C. Cir. 2001) (air bag specifications representing “years of research and development and enormous financial investment” not subject to FOIA disclosure).

The enclosed information contains Triumph’s detailed assessment of three motorcycles that were the subject of vehicle owner questionnaires (VOQs) to the Agency. The information includes a description of the inspection, evaluation of the motorcycles, and assessment of the braking performance of the motorcycles. As the Agency is aware, the motorcycle industry is highly competitive. Triumph closely guards against public disclosure of such information and it is “customarily kept private” and “closely held” by Triumph. See Food Marketing Institute v. Argus Leader Media, supra. Disclosure of this information would provide Triumph’s competitors valuable information related to investigating VOQs without the corresponding expense of developing their own processes. Accordingly, Triumph requests that this information be given confidential treatment indefinitely.
