READ THIS NOTICE CAREFULLY

Notice to Plaintiff and Defendant: A small claims lawsuit has been filed in justice court.

- A small claims lawsuit is an informal way to resolve civil disputes that are $3,500 or less.
- Parties in a lawsuit are called "plaintiff" and "defendant." Plaintiffs start a lawsuit by filing a complaint against defendants.
- PLAINTIFF: A lawsuit against the defendant cannot proceed without proper service as described in the Arizona Rules of Small Claims Procedure. When you file your Complaint, the court will provide you with a Summons and a copy of this notice that you must serve on each defendant along with the Complaint. You must file proof of service within 45 calendar days or your case may be dismissed. If proof of service is not timely filed or your case is not concluded within 65 days of the date the defendant was served, the court may dismiss your case unless it finds a good reason not to.
- DEFENDANT: You must file a written answer and mail a copy to the plaintiff. Otherwise, judgment may be entered against you. If you have a claim against the plaintiff, even if it is based on a different event than described in the complaint, you may file a counterclaim and must mail a copy to the plaintiff.
- BOTH PARTIES: You must provide supporting evidence for your claims and defenses and must appear at all scheduled hearings or alternative dispute resolution conferences.
- A Justice of the Peace or a Hearing Officer with specialized training will conduct the hearing. You should be prepared to clearly present your evidence. Although you may be permitted to appear telephonically if needed, you must submit all evidence to the court before the hearing. If you fail to appear at a hearing, the court may enter a judgment against you. To ensure that you receive these notices, you must keep the court informed, in writing, of your current address and telephone number until the lawsuit is over.
- You must follow the Arizona Revised Statutes and Arizona Rules of Small Claims Procedure that apply in your lawsuit. The statutes and rules are available in many public libraries and at the courthouse. The statutes are also online at the Arizona State Legislature webpage, and the rules are online at the Arizona Judicial Branch Court Rules webpage.
- You must properly complete court papers and file them when they are due. Blank forms are on the Arizona Judicial Branch website and available from any justice court.
- Some filings require a filing fee. Parties can request a fee waiver or deferral from the court but must still file documents on time.
- Court staff cannot give legal advice but can provide information about jurisdiction, venue, pleadings, and procedures for the small claims division of the justice court.
- There are no attorneys in a small claims lawsuit unless the parties agree in writing. Individuals usually represent themselves. One spouse may represent both spouses. A full-time corporate officer or authorized employee may represent a corporation; an active general partner or an authorized full-time employee may represent a partnership; an active member or an authorized full-time employee may represent an association; and any other organization may be represented by one of its active members or authorized full-time employees.
- Parties cannot appeal a small claims judgment. Parties may request to transfer the lawsuit from small claims to the regular Civil Division of the justice court. A transfer will allow:
 - Attorney representation without written agreement;
 - Counterclaims for more than $3,500;
 - Motions that are not permitted in small claims lawsuits;
 - A jury trial; and
 - An appeal.

SMALL CLAIMS COMPLAINT

ARSCP 4

WARNING: THERE ARE NO APPEALS IN SMALL CLAIMS CASES. You do not have the right to appeal the decision of the Hearing Officer or the Justice of the Peace in the Small Claims Division of this court. If you wish to preserve your right to appeal, you may have your case transferred to the Civil Division of this court. If you request such transfer, allow at least 10 business days prior to the day of the scheduled hearing. ARS 22-504, ARSCP 11(a)

This court has venue over this matter because:

- Defendant resides in this precinct.
- The debt, transaction or incident that resulted in this claim occurred in this precinct at the following location (ARS 22-202):

$ 2,219.43 is the total amount owed me by defendant because (please attach additional page(s) if more room is needed):

In 2016, Defendants sold Plaintiffs a new 2017 Chevrolet Volt. Defts General Motors/Chevrolet ("GM") knew or came to know that there was a widespread defect causing the abrupt failure of the plug-in hybrid car's electrical system. Plaintiffs' car experienced such a failure in November 2022, shortly after the expiration of the 100,000 mile warranty. Deft Chapman estimates $2,219.43 to repair a defect GM knows to be related to poor soldering or a design defect. A TSB was 1st issued in 2018, but GM neither recalled the vehicle to fix it nor extended the warranty. GM and/or Chapman has the ability to accept responsibility for the the repair to Plaintiffs' vehicle, and refused to do so. Plaintiffs have not joined the class action lawsuit(s) involving the defect. Plaintiffs request this Court order Defts to accept financial responsibility to repair the defective vehicle, or to reimburse Plaintiffs' out of pocket costs to repair.

To the best of my knowledge and belief:
