This is your case. You have a responsibility to yourself and to the court to acquire a sufficient knowledge to complete the forms properly and to follow your lawsuit to conclusion. There are certain steps you must follow to pursue it properly. This information is provided to assist you in general procedure. You may also want to refer to the Arizona Revised Statutes (ARS), Arizona Rules of Court (ARCP), Justice Courts Rules of Civil Procedure (JCRCP), and Arizona Rules of Small Claims (ARSCP) for additional information. If you oppose a motion for change of venue you must file an objection in writing within ten days after service of the motion. ARS 12-404A Venue may be proper in more than one precinct, however if, after hearing, the original venue is found to be wrong additional fees may be assessed to the plaintiff. ARS 12-407, ARSCP Rule 10

Amended complaints are not allowed in Small Claims. ARSCP 4(c)

YOU HAVE 45 DAYS TO FILE PROOF OF SERVICE OF THE COMPLAINT, SUMMONS, AND NOTICE OR YOUR CASE IS SUBJECT TO DISMISSAL ARSCP 5(a)

METHODS OF SERVICE The plaintiff may serve the Complaint, Summons, and Notice by certified, restricted mail with a return receipt. Service is deemed complete upon the delivery of the mailing to the defendant and signed by the defendant (as evidenced on the return receipt filed with the court).

Each named defendant must be served a copy of the COMPLAINT, SUMMONS, and NOTICE. To ensure the named party defendant signs the return receipt, restricted delivery should be used.

If the postal service does not enter a date of delivery or the date is not legible, service is deemed complete on the date the return receipt is filed with the court. The plaintiff may file the return receipt (the green card) with the court in person or by first class mail.

If the defendant refuses to accept the mailing, or a person other than the named defendant signs for the registered or certified mailing, then service has NOT been properly accomplished.

If the defendant cannot be served by registered or certified mail, personal service by a licensed process server may be used.

If you need more time to serve, you may transfer the case to the courts Civil Division.

If the claim is against a corporation, the statutory agent, or an officer of the corporation must be served on behalf of the corporation named in the complaint. You may obtain the name and address of a statutory agent or corporate officer by calling the Arizona Corporation Commission 602-542-3026 or 1-800-345-5819.

IT IS IMPORTANT THAT ALL PARTIES KEEP THE COURT UPDATED OF ANY CHANGE IN CONTACT INFORMATION. A CONTACT INFORMATION UPDATE form is available at the court and must be filed with the court when a party changes their address.

DEFAULT If the defendant does not file an answer to the complaint within 20 calendar days after service is complete, the plaintiff may apply for an entry of default against the defendant. If a counterclaim has been filed and the plaintiff fails to file a reply to the counterclaim within the time allowed, the counter-claimant (defendant) may apply for an entry of default against the counter-defendant (plaintiff) on the counterclaim. The party seeking the default must mail a copy of the Application for Entry of Default form to the defaulting party. If the party claimed to be in default fails to file an answer or pleading or otherwise defend the lawsuit within 10 judicial days of the filing of the application, the plaintiff may then file the Request for Entry of Default Judgment and a Judgment form. JCRCP 140

DISMISSAL The plaintiff may dismiss the claim at any time prior to the defendant filing an answer or other pleading. Once the defendant has filed an answer both parties must stipulate to a dismissal (agree in writing). The court may dismiss a case that is not concluded within 65 days from the service of the complaint ARSCP 5(c), 17(a)(b)

FILING AN ANSWER The defendant has 20 calendar days to file an answer to the complaint with the court and pay the answer fee. The answer should respond to each allegation of the complaint. The case will then be set for a hearing. Failure to file an answer may result in a default judgment. An application for waiver/deferral may be filed if applicable. ARS 22-514, ARSCP 7

FILING A COUNTERCLAIM A counterclaim is a claim made by the defendant against the plaintiff. A counterclaim may be filed at the same time the answer is filed or must be filed within 20 days of service of the summons. If the defendant files a counterclaim, the plaintiff has 20 calendar days to file a response. Amended counterclaims are not allowed. A default judgment may be entered against the plaintiff for failure to answer the counterclaim. If the defendant files a counterclaim and the amount claimed exceeds $3,500.00, the court will transfer the case to the Civil Division. ARS 22-517, ARSCP 9

MOTIONS Only two motions are allowed in the Small Claims Division: a Motion for Change of Venue (filed before an Answer) and a Motion to Vacate Judgment (filed after a judgment). ARS 22-505, ARSCP 10,16

HEARING OFFICERS Either a Justice of the Peace or an appointed Volunteer Hearing Officer may hear your case. Any party may object to the use of a hearing officer at least 15 calendar days prior to the hearing date in writing. The court can provide you with a form to make this objection. The case will then be referred to and heard by the Justice of the Peace. ARS 22-506, ARSCP 12(a)

SETTING FOR HEARING A hearing date will be set within 60 calendar days after the answer has been filed with the court. All parties will be notified of the date and time of the hearing. ARS 22-515A, ARSCP 8

REQUEST TO CONTINUE COURT DATE If for some reason you find that you are unable to appear for your hearing on the date and time scheduled, you may file a Request for Continuance with the court showing good cause why you are unable to appear. The Judge will consider the merits of your request and either grant or deny it. The request for continuance must be in writing and should be timely filed, at least 15 calendar days prior to the hearing date. ARS 22-515C, ARSCP 12(b)

THE HEARING You cannot have your Small Claims case heard before a jury.

Bring to the hearing anything necessary or relevant to establish or defend the claim or counterclaim. Examples: books, papers, bills, pictures of damages, or other exhibits. Both parties may also bring witnesses to testify on their behalf to substantiate your position. You will only be allowed a limited amount of time to present your claim or your defense. ARS 22-518, ARSCP 1(d)

If the case is settled before the scheduled hearing date, be sure to notify the court. A Stipulated Dismissal, Settlement, or Judgment must be filed. Within five calendar days after the decision, a copy of the Judgment or Order will be mailed/delivered to each party. ARSCP 15(b)

APPEAL Parties DO NOT have the right to appeal. The decision of the hearing officer or justice of the peace is final and binding on both parties. If you wish to preserve your right to appeal, you may have the case transferred to the Civil Division of the justice court. You may do this at any time up to 10 business days before hearing. ARS 22-519, ARSCP 11(a)

JUDGMENT AWARDED If you are awarded the Judgment, it is valid for 10 years from the date it is entered, if you choose to renew the Judgment, the renewal must be filed within 90 calendar days from the expiration. Refer to the court's handout Collecting a Money Judgment.

VACATE JUDGMENT A motion can be filed by either party to remove a Judgment and must be filed within six months from date of judgment. The Motion must be delivered on the other party. If you oppose a motion to vacate the judgment, file a response in writing 15 calendar days after receiving the motion. If the motion to vacate judgment is the defendant's first filing, the defendant must pay a filing fee. ARSCP 16
