AGREEMENT TO ARBITRATE ANY CLAIMS. READ THE FOLLOWING ARBITRATION AGREEMENT CAREFULLY, IT LIMITS YOUR RIGHT TO MAINTAIN A COURT ACTION AND A CLASS ACTION LAWSUIT.

The parties to this Arbitration Agreement and each of their heirs, successors, affiliates, subsidiaries and parent companies agree to arbitrate any claim, dispute or controversy, including all statutory claims and any state or federal claims, that may arise out of or are related to the purchase or lease from the dealership of an automobile and the financing thereof, including the validity of this Arbitration Agreement. This Arbitration Agreement is made pursuant to a transaction involving interstate commerce and should be governed by the Federal Arbitration Act, 9 U.S.C. §§1, and not by state law regarding arbitration. By agreeing to arbitration, the parties understand and agree that they are waiving their rights to maintain other available resolution processes; such as a court action or administrative proceeding, to settle their disputes. State Consumer Fraud Act claims, Used Car Lemon Law claims, and Truth-in-Lending claims are just three examples of the various types of claims subject to arbitration under this Arbitration Agreement. There are no limitations on the type of claims that must be arbitrated except for New Car Lemon Law claims, Magnusson-Moss Warranty Act claims, and small claims filed as a court action, unless such small claim is then removed, transferred or appealed to a different court. The arbitration shall be conducted in accordance with this Arbitration Agreement and with the Rules of JAMS arbitration (the "Rules") before a single arbitrator. If a conflict exists between the terms of this Arbitration Agreement and the Rules, then this Arbitration Agreement shall govern. The costs incurred in the arbitration process shall be shared as provided by the Rules. The arbitration shall take place in Rhode Island at a mutually agreed upon location. The terms of this Arbitration Agreement may not be severed. Therefore, if any portion of this Arbitration Agreement is deemed unenforceable, then this entire Arbitration Agreement shall be unenforceable. The decision of the arbitrator shall be binding upon the parties. Any further relief sought by either party will be subject to the decision of the arbitrator.
