Re: PE23-023; Partial Response

Dear Mr. York,

Enclosed is Nissan's complete response to the referenced NHTSA Information Request of February 16, 2024, concerning the Agency's investigation of allegations of engine failure that can lead to loss of motive power with no ability to restart in the subject vehicles. By email dated March 20, 2024, NHTSA granted an extension of time through April 15, 2024, for Nissan to respond to certain requests that require additional analysis.

This complete response covers questions 1 through 13 of the information request.

The attached reply responds by first stating each question, then the response. Please contact us if you have any questions.

Sincerely,

Wilbert Swindell
