Answer

Ford is providing owner and field reports in the database contained in the folder "PE24-002 Part 1_Request3_Appendix C" in response to Request 3.

To the extent information sought in Request 3 is available for lawsuits and claims, it is provided in the Log of Lawsuits and Claims provided in the file titled "PE24-002 Part 1_Request 3_LawsuitsandClaims_Log."

The categorizations used in the review of reports (defined in file "PE24-002 Part 1_Request2_Response.docx" all assume an electrical system failure that may have disrupted the components that provide the flow of power necessary for the vehicle's intended operation.

Subsection j asks if there is an allegation of an electrical system failure. Based on our review any of the responsive claims per the categories we defined may have experienced an electrical failure.
