Pursuant to the Illinois Commercial Safety Towing Law, a commercial vehicle safety relocator shall not commence the towing of a damaged or disabled vehicle until providing the vehicle owner or operator (or law enforcement agency or insurance company) with the disclosures set forth herein. An itemized description of the owner or operator's rights under this Law is as follows:"

NOTIFICATION OF CUSTOMER RIGHTS

"As a customer, you also have the following rights under Illinois law:

(1) This written disclosure must be provided to you before your vehicle is towed, providing the business name, business address, address where the vehicle will be towed, and a reliable telephone number;

(2) Before towing, you must be advised of the price of all services;

(3) Upon your demand, your vehicle must be returned during business hours, upon your prompt payment of all reasonable fees;

(4) You have the right to pay all charges in cash or by major credit card;

(5) Upon your demand, you must be provided with proof of the existence of mandatory insurance insuring against all risks associated with the transportation and storage of your vehicle."

If the vehicle owner is incapacitated, incompetent, or otherwise unable to knowingly accept receipt of this Disclosure, the commercial vehicle safety relocator shall provide a completed copy of the Disclosure to local law enforcement and, if known, vehicle owner or operator's automobile insurance company.

If the commercial vehicle safety relocator fails to comply with the requirements of the Law, the commercial vehicle safety relocator shall be prohibited from seeking any compensation whatsoever from the vehicle owner or operator, and any contracts entered into by the commercial vehicle safety relocator and the vehicle owner or operator shall be deemed null, void, and unenforceable.
