This notice is sent to you in accordance with the requirements of the National Traffic and Motor Vehicle Safety Act.

Fleetwood Folding Trailers, Inc. has decided that certain 2005 model year Resort, Pegasus, and Orbit travel trailers fail to conform to ANSI A119.2, paragraph 6.2.1. Minimum Exit Facilities.

WHAT IS THE PROBLEM?

The subject travel trailers are not in compliance by not having a minimum of two emergency exits. If this noncompliance is not corrected, it can result in personal injury.

WHAT WILL FLEETWOOD DO?

Your selling dealer will install an emergency egress window at no charge to you in accordance with the recall, using parts (immediately available) and instructions supplied by Fleetwood Folding Trailers, Inc.

WHAT SHOULD YOU DO?

To have this kit installed on your travel trailer, please contact your selling dealer for an appointment. Estimated time of installation is 1 ½ hours. The total length of time your travel trailer will be out of service will depend on the service facilities work schedule at the time of installation.

If you have had this concern corrected previously, you may be eligible for reimbursement of your cost for that repair. For more information regarding this recall (#05V-181), contact Fleetwood Folding Trailers, Inc. at 800/841-3605.
