Today I received a package from HCI that included both a response to the information request letter I sent them as well as the attached cover letter, Part 573, and sample notification letter and envelope.

I am providing you a copy of the cover letter and the original Part 573 and sample notification letter and envelope for your records. If you need any additional information, please let me know as it may have been submitted with the response to the information request.

Regards,
Claudia Covell
