Subject: Lamp Recall Notice (20-6361/2-00) – Units Installed Prior to January 10, 2007

Dear Valued Customer,

We had identified that TYC items 20-6361-00 and 20-6362-00 (03-06 Honda Accord Head Lamp) exhibit photometric performance variances and had issued a recall notification on January 10, 2007. In addition to your existing inventories, please be advised that this recall has been extended to also include all units previously installed onto vehicles.

To facilitate the recall process and ensure timely processing of your refund, please adhere to the following guidelines for units installed onto vehicles prior to January 10, 2007:

1. Forward consumer recall memo (provided separately) to your collision repairers, advising them to contact the applicable vehicle owners regarding the recall. As per NHTSA's requirement, the consumer recall memo needs to be enclosed/mailed in a standard-size envelope, with the following notation stated in bold font at a size larger than all other fonts on the envelope, in the lower left or lower right corner: "SAFETY RECALL NOTICE".
2. Advise collision repairers to return a) physical TYC lamps, and b) repair receipts to you in order to qualify for refund.
3. Upon validation of physical TYC lamp(s) with receipt, you may issue refund only for the lamp and labor costs. Guideline: up to $230 refund per OE lamp replacement.
4. Please consolidate and return all physical TYC lamps with accompanying repair receipts to your local Genera Distribution Center once per month.
5. Your Genera Distribution Center will validate and process refunds within five (5) business days of receiving the returned TYC lamps/receipts.

Please be reminded to immediately discontinue selling these products and contact your Genera Distribution Center for an RGA number to facilitate your return of affected items in your current inventory. You will be reimbursed for all return transportation charges and be credited for 100% value of the merchandise.
