Subject: Lamp Recall Notice (20-6644-00) – Produced between September 29, 2006 - May 11, 2007.

Dear Valued Customer,

We had identified that TYC item 20-6644-00 (05-06 Nissan Altima Head Lamp) exhibit photometric performance variances (isolated to certain production batches) that warrant a product recall. Please immediately inspect and 'only' quarantine inventory that was produced between September 29, 2006 and May 11, 2007. Please contact your Genera Distribution Center for an RGA number to facilitate your return. You will be reimbursed for all return transportation charges and be credited for 100% value of the merchandise.

Inventory that were produced 'prior' to September 29, 2006 and 'after' May 11, 2007 is conforming to photometric requirements and may continued to be distributed.

Please refer to the images below for identifying the manufacture date of the product:

Please refer to the 8-digit lot # code immediately following the part number '20-6644-00' near the bottom of the label to determine manufacture date. The 8-digit code = Month, Day, Year, Hour (MMDDYYHH). The example above was manufactured on April 23rd, 2007 at 19:00 hour.

The same 8-digit lot # is also stamped on the housing of the physical lamp.
