Re: Westport Fuel Systems Inc. - Recall #10V-165

Dear Ms. Lopez:

Further to the letter of April 29th from George Person, we are submitting the following response to conform the information set forth in Mr. Person's letter to the information in Westport's records. Please note the following comments:

1. In the heading "Makes/Models/Model Years" the correct information should read WESTPORT/ISX G/2007, 2009

2. Under the heading "Components" the correct information should read FUEL PUMP: RELIEF VALVE

3. Under the Heading "Potential Number of Units Affected" the correct information should read 11.

4. In Mr. Person's letter on Page 2, you ask that Westport provide the model years that are involved. The model years involved are 2007 and 2009

5. In your review of the draft owner letter, you asked us to change the word "determined" to "decided" under the Reason for Recall heading. We have done so in both the owner letter and the dealer letter

6. In your review of the draft owner letter, you have asked us to include a full address and contact information for the Administrator. We have done so.

7. We made the following additional changes to the owner letter and the dealer letter:

i. Added reference to the Recall Number.

ii. Deleted reference to the TBA item in the table of VIN numbers. We have located the TBA unit and it has not been installed in any vehicle, so it was removed from the recall list.

iii. Revised the date and removed the draft watermark on each of the letters.

iv. The reference to an operation number at the end of the dealer letter has been removed. Westport will instruct the dealers to refer to the Technical Service Bulletin.

I enclose revised copies of the owner and dealer letters. As discussed, we plan to send out the owner and dealer letters and the technical service bulletin later today. We will provide you with hard copies of the letters within five (5) days after they are sent.

Thank you for your consideration of this matter. Please contact me should you have any questions.

Very truly yours,

Mark R. Kaster
