Subject: Safety Recall 10KWB – Insufficient Oiling of Rear Axle Outer End Hubs
Vin No.

Dear Kenworth Customer,

This notice is sent to you in accordance with the requirements of the National Traffic and Motor Vehicle Safety Act.

Kenworth Truck Company has decided that a defect which relates to motor vehicle safety exists in certain T2000, T660, T800 and W900 vehicles manufactured at Kenworth's Chillicothe plant between July 30, 2009 and September 18, 2009. Your vehicle has been identified as having been manufactured within this time period and may contain a defect.

The rear axle outer end hub may have not been primed with oil properly during the rear axle installation process. Potential lack of oil may cause the outer end bearing to heat up and/or seize, possibly resulting in the overheating of the wheel end. As a result, a wheel end fire may occur, increasing the risk of an accident. This condition was determined by Kenworth to be a safety-related defect.

The problem is...	Possible insufficient oiling of rear axle outer end hubs
What your dealer will do...	Replace the bearings and inspect the spindles and hubs for scoring and replace as necessary
