Re: Brake Pedal Connecting Rod Pins Replacement

Dear Can-Am™ Spyder™ Roadster Owner,

This notice is being sent to you in accordance with the requirements of the National Traffic and Motor Vehicle Safety Act, the Canada Motor Vehicle Safety Act and other applicable laws. Bombardier Recreational Products Inc. and BRP US Inc. (“BRP”) have decided that a defect which relates to motor vehicle safety exists on certain Can-Am Spyder roadsters models and are conducting a safety recall. Our records indicate that you are the owner of a potentially affected vehicle.

What is the potential problem?

A pin securing the brake pedal connecting rod could disengage and eventually fall off. This could cause a total loss of main brake function without prior warning. This condition may increase the risk of a crash possibly resulting in injury or death.

Which models are involved?

Model	Model Year
Spyder RT Series	2010

What should you do?

Contact an authorized BRP Can-Am Spyder roadster dealer and make an appointment to have the brake pedal connecting rod pins replaced as soon as possible. This work will be performed at no charge to you. This repair will take approximately less than one hour.

For US residents only

If you believe that the dealer or BRP has failed or is unable to remedy the problem within a reasonable time, you may submit a complaint to the Administrator, National Highway Traffic Safety Administration, 1200 New Jersey Avenue S.E. Washington, D.C. 20590, or call the toll free Auto Safety Hot Line at 1-888-327-4236 (TTY: 1-800-424-9153), or go to <http://www.safercar.gov>.

For Canadian residents only

If you believe that the notification or correction is inadequate, that the manufacturer fails to correct the situation in accordance with the notification or it fails or is unable to correct the situation within 60 days, you may submit a complaint to the Road Safety and Motor Vehicle Regulation Directorate of Transport Canada at 1-800-333-0510.
