

Frequently Asked Questions (FAQ) Voluntary Safety Recall 69i9

SUMMARY

■ Campaign Code: 69i9

■ Affected Vehicles: 2012-2013 MY Volkswagen Beetle equipped with leather sport seats

Problem Description: Vehicles equipped with leather sport seats have been built with an incorrectly coded Passenger Occupant Detection System Control Module (J706) in the right front passenger location.

USA: If the leather seat gets wet and if a child restraint is secured on the right front passenger seat, the control module may not properly detect the child restraint. The right front passenger airbag will not be turned off as expected. The PASSENGER AIRBAG OFF light will not illuminate, alerting the driver that the passenger airbag has not been turned off.

CANADA: If the leather seat gets wet and if, despite safety warnings and provincial regulations, a child restraint is secured on the right front passenger seat, the control module may not properly detect the child restraint. The right front passenger airbag will not be turned off as expected. The PASSENGER AIR BAG OFF light will not illuminate, alerting the driver that the passenger airbag has not been turned off.

If the right front passenger airbag is not turned off when a child restraint is secured on the right front passenger seat, there is a risk of serious injury to the child seated there in the event of a crash with airbag deployment.

Volkswagen is not aware of any crash or injury caused by this issue.

Corrective Action: Replace Passenger Occupant Detection System Control Module (J706).
