

Equipment Safety Recall Quarterly Report Information

Report Date: September 3, 2014 Calendar Quarter: April 1, 2014 to June 30, 2014

Manufacturer:

Airtex Products, LP
407 West Main Street
Fairfield, Illinois 62837-1622
1-800-880-3056

Name, address, email, and phone and fax numbers for the person(s) to whom inquiries about this report should be directed:

Keith Zar
VP and General Counsel
UCI-FRAM Group
1900 West Field Court
Lake Forest, Illinois 60045
(847) 482-4350
Keith.Zar@uci-fram.com

Subject equipment: Airtex E8598M; E8518M; E8600M; E8596M; E8597M Fuel Pumps

1. NHTSA Safety Recall Campaign Number: 13E-065
2. (a) The date notification to purchasers began: Airtex is still attempting to identify customers that may have purchased from its direct customers.

(b) The date notification of purchasers was completed: Efforts remain ongoing. Airtex solicited the names of consumers who purchased the product from Airtex's customers. It did not receive any consumer information this quarter or send any notifications this quarter.

(c) The date notification to retailers, wholesalers and installers began: November 22, 2013.

(d) The date notification to retailers, wholesalers and installers completed: Efforts remain ongoing.
3. The total number of items of equipment involved: 397. Airtex continues to receive and quarantine products from its customer's inventory. Through the end of June 30, 2014, Airtex has received 204 non-conforming pumps from customers.. To date, 193 products remain in the field. No failures impacting motor vehicle safety have been reported.
4. a) Total number inspected and remedied: During the reported quarter, Airtex received 249 pumps from and provided replacement pumps.

b) Total number inspected, but determined NOT to require the remedy: 111 of the pumps received were non-conforming.
5. Numbers of items of equipment determined to be unreachable: Airtex recovery efforts continue.