NHTSA RECALL 13V377

November 3, 2014

Dear Volvo Owner,

This notice is sent to you in accordance with the requirements of the National Traffic and Motor Vehicle Safety Act.

In October 2013, a letter was sent to eligible vehicle owners announcing a safety recall on the Central Electronic Module (CEM) software. Our records indicate that this important safety recall has not been completed on your vehicle. Please schedule an appointment at your local authorized Volvo retailer as soon as possible to have this important safety recall performed at no charge.

Volvo Cars of North America, LLC (Volvo) on behalf of Volvo Car Corporation, has decided that certain model year 2014 S60, S80, XC60 and XC70 vehicles fail to conform to Federal Motor Vehicle Safety Standard FMVSS No.104 Windshield wiping and washing systems, and No. 108 Lamps, reflective devices, and associated equipment.

The reason for Recall R39413:

Due to a software error on certain Model Year 2014 S60, S80, XC60 and XC70 vehicles equipped with Keyless ignition, the Central Electronic Module (CEM) may not perform as intended. If the deviation occurs, when restarting the engine after the vehicle has been parked, the amber colored warning light in the Driver Information Module (DIM) will illuminate and the following message displayed e.g. "Alarm system service required". There may also be other messages in the DIM depending on individual vehicle equipment. In addition to this, the front windshield wipers will be running continuously when the ignition is on. Malfunctioning headlamps and/or turn signals increase the risk of a crash.

Vehicle owners may also experience one or all of the following symptoms on affected vehicles:

- The turn signals do not work.
- The headlight switch does not work. Low beam is permanently on when ignition is on.
- High beam does not work.
- Windshield washer system does not work.

The corrective action is to perform a Central Electronic Module (CEM) software upgrade.
