Attention: Mazda Service and Parts Managers

Subject: Suspension of Safety and Emission Recall 7214C
2010-2012 Mazda6 2.5L Engine Fuel Tank

Safety and Emission Recall 7214C has been temporarily suspended.

An issue has been discovered concerning the PCM software update for recall 7214C. Due to a database error, IDS is unable to update the PCM on these vehicles.

We are working to correct this issue at the highest priority. We will re-open the recall and notify you as soon as the software data issue is resolved.

Owners of affected vehicles have not yet been notified. The notification letters will not be mailed until after the software data issue is resolved.

Your understanding and support are greatly appreciated.
