Vehicle Identification Number – VIN JL6AME1A8CK001636

Dear Mitsubishi Fuso Truck Owner:

This notice is sent to you in accordance with the requirements of the National Traffic and Motor Vehicle Safety Act.

Mitsubishi Fuso Truck of America, Inc. has decided that a defect which relates to motor vehicle safety exists in the automatic transmission fluid. On affected vehicles, the transmission assembly may not have been cleaned sufficiently during the manufacturing process, allowing debris to contaminate the ATF. This debris could become lodged in the clutch control solenoid valve, causing abnormal noise when shifting, flaring between gears when shifting, or inability to shift. In the worst case, the transmission could become completely inoperative or the engine could stall, causing a crash without warning.

Please detach, sign & return this prepaid business reply postcard if any owner/vehicle information requires updating.

The operation of the transmission will be inspected. All transmission assemblies found to be shifting properly will be flushed two times and refilled with new ATF. A shift quality recovery action will be performed on any transmission found to be adversely affected by clutch control solenoid valve clogging. If shift operation does not return to normal, the transmission assembly will be replaced. At the same time, as a goodwill gesture, the gear oil in the rear half of the transmission will be drained and replaced in order to ensure that the transmission's maintenance intervals are not adversely affected by this corrective action. The procedure will be completed at no cost to you when performed by an Authorized Dealer or Parts and Service Center. The scheduled time for inspection, flushing and fluid replacement is approximately 1.8 hours.

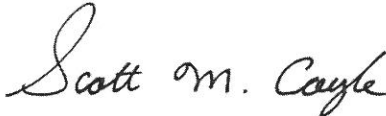

Federal regulation requires that any vehicle lessor receiving this recall notice must forward a copy of this notice to the lessee within ten days. If you are the lessor of the above referenced vehicle, please forward this notification immediately.
