This notice is sent to you in accordance with the requirements of the National Traffic and Motor Vehicle Safety ACT.

Adrian Steel Company has decided that a defect which relates to motor vehicle safety exists in certain model year 2012 Ford E250 Commercial Cargo Vans that are equipped with Roush CleanTech liquid propane autogas fuel systems, including the vehicles identified above. According to our records, you are the owner (leasee) of these vehicles.

Under certain circumstances, the aluminum fuel line fitting in the conversion kits can experience galvanic corrosion where it contacts the brass supply valve housing on the fuel tank. This could result in a leak of the propane fuel, which could lead to a fire.

WHAT WE WILL DO:

To remedy this problem, Adrian Steel Company has arranged with Roush CleanTech (“Roush”) to replace the aluminum fuel line fitting with a new stainless steel fitting at no cost to you.

WHAT YOU SHOULD DO:

At your earliest convenience, please call Roush at 1-800-59-ROUSH (1-800-596-6874) to obtain instructions on how to have your vehicle repaired. When you call, please be prepared to provide your name and the VIN of each of your vehicles that are covered by this notification. We estimate that each repair will take approximately 30 minutes to complete.

If you no longer own one or more of the above-referenced vehicles, please provide Roush with the name and address of the current owner(s) (if you know them) so we may contact them regarding this recall.

If you believe that Adrian Steel Company or Roush has failed or is unable to remedy the defect without charge within a reasonable time, please contact Adrian Steel Company Customer Care at 1-800-677-2726 (ask for extension 5128). You may also contact the Administrator, National Highway Traffic Safety Administration, 1200 New Jersey Avenue, SE, Washington, DC 20590; or call the toll-free Vehicle Safety Hotline at 1-888-327-4236 (TTY: 1-800-424-9153); or go to <http://www.safercar.gov>.

If you have leased any of the above-referenced vehicles to another person, federal regulations require you to send a copy of this notice to the leasee by first-class mail within ten days of your receipt of this notice.

Thank you for your prompt attention to this matter. We apologize for any inconvenience. Your safety is our priority.

Sincerely,

Richard D. Rose
Vice President of Engineering
