I am including the letter from Atwood Mobile Products that details the problem, how to confirm if a unit is affected, what to do immediately to insure no injury occurs, and how to get the issue repaired and resolved. The units that your dealer retailed that may be affected are:

You may get some questions from consumers in the future. Follow the instructions in Atwood Mobile Product's letter and if you have any questions, contact Atwood Mobile Products at the telephone number 877-546-9074.

We apologize for any inconvenience to you as our partner, but we certainly take the safety of our consumers as a top priority.
