IMPORTANT SAFETY RECALL REMINDER

FOURTH REMINDER – ACTION REQUIRED

IMPORTANT SAFETY RECALL REMINDER

Suzuki Motor Corporation has decided that a defect which relates to motor vehicle safety and emissions exists in all 2010~2012 and certain 2013 Suzuki Kizashi vehicles. Symptoms you could experience with your vehicle are:

- Liquid fuel leak near or around the fuel tank area
- Fuel smell with or without a liquid fuel leak present

WARNING: Operating your vehicle without completing these repairs exposes you, your passengers, and others to unnecessary risk of personal injury and/or property damage!

What is the problem?

The cause of this condition results from a spider that enters the evaporative emissions canister air vent line and weaves a web, causing a restriction in the vent line. If this occurs, air flow through the evaporative emissions system may be impacted in that excessive negative pressure is created in the fuel tank. This can cause deformation of the fuel tank, which can lead to fuel tank cracks. If the fuel tank becomes cracked, fuel leakage and venting of fuel vapors can occur, increasing the risk of a fire.

What is Suzuki doing to solve the problem?

We originally notified customers by mail in August 2014 and we continue to reach out to all customers who own affected vehicles. Parts are in stock, and our Service Provider network is ready to make the necessary repairs.
