Chronology :

In March 2016, Pierce was notified of a recall issued by Pelican Products, Inc. - the manufacturer of the flashlight. Pierce reviewed its records and verified a few vehicles had shipped with the suspect part.

Description of Remedy :

Description of Remedy Program : Per the information provided by the notice issued by Pelican Products Inc. - (the flashlight manufacturer), the customer is to inspect their flashlight and battery pack to determine if they have a battery within the suspect population. If they do, they are to contact Pelican Products Inc. and request a replacement. Pelican Products Inc. has issued a consumer product recall through the CPSC. Recall #16-113.

How Remedy Component Differs from Recalled Component : Per the information provided by the flashlight manufacturer, the recalled flashlights have manufacturer part number 9410-021-245 or 9410-021-110 printed on the packaging. The manufacturer part number for the recalled battery pack is 9413-301-001 and is printed on the battery's shrink wrap. Only battery packs that contain green shrink wrapped cells are included in the recall.

Identify How/When Recall Condition was Corrected in Production : Pierce inspected all in stock flashlights and battery packs and removed any found to meet the recalled population.
