Subject: Safety Recall 69M1 – Side Airbag Inflators
Certain 2015 Model Year Audi Q5 Vehicles

Dear Audi Owner,

This notice is sent to you in accordance with the National Traffic and Motor Vehicle Safety Act. Audi has decided that a defect, which relates to motor vehicle safety, exists in certain 2015 model year Audi Q5 vehicles. Our records show that you are the owner of a vehicle affected by this action.

What is the issue? The driver and right front passenger seat-mounted side airbags may contain a manufacturing defect that may result in an airbag inflator rupture during a crash where there is a side airbag deployment. If this happens, airbag inflator components could be propelled into the passenger compartment, possibly striking and causing serious injury or death to vehicle occupants.

What will we do? To help correct this defect, your authorized Audi dealer will replace all side airbag modules produced within a specific period. This work will take about four hours to complete and will be performed for you free of charge.

What should you do? Please contact your authorized Audi dealer without delay to schedule this recall repair. For your convenience, you can also visit www.audiusa.com and click on the “Find a Dealer” link to locate a dealer near you and schedule this service.

Lease vehicles and address changes If you are the lessor and registered owner of the vehicle identified in this action, the law requires you to forward this letter immediately via first-class mail to the lessee within ten (10) days of receipt. If you have changed your address or sold the vehicle, please fill out the enclosed prepaid Owner Reply card and mail it to us so we can update our records.

Reimbursement of Expenses If you have previously paid for repairs relating to the condition described in this letter, the enclosed form explains how to request reimbursement. We would be pleased to review your reimbursement request.
