Subject: Safety Recall 69N1 - Takata SDI Driver Frontal Airbag Inflator
Certain 2009-2012 Model Year Audi Vehicles Equipped with a Takata SDI
Driver Frontal Airbag

Dear Audi Owner,

This notice is sent to you in accordance with the National Traffic and Motor Vehicle Safety Act. Audi has decided that a defect, which relates to motor vehicle safety, exists in certain 2009-2012 model year Audi vehicles equipped with a Takata SDI driver frontal airbag. Our records show that you are the owner of a vehicle affected by this action.

Audi of America, Inc.

Auburn Hills, MI 48326

What is the issue? Takata has reported that the driver frontal airbag inflator could potentially rupture (due to propellant degradation occurring after long-term exposure to absolute high humidity and temperature cycling) if the vehicle is involved in a crash where the frontal airbags are designed to deploy. In the event of an inflator rupture, metal fragments could pass through the airbag cushion material, which may result in serious injury or death to vehicle occupants.

What will we do? To address this defect, your authorized Audi dealer will perform an interim repair to replace the driver frontal airbag inflator with a newly manufactured version.

The National Highway Traffic Safety Administration (NHTSA) has concluded, based on information it has collected, that the age of the inflator, temperature cycling, and environmental moisture are likely the root cause of rupturing. Therefore, replacing the older inflator with a newer version reduces the safety risk associated with the vehicle until a final remedy is available.

This work will take about an hour to complete and will be performed for you free of charge.

All vehicles repaired with this interim remedy will be offered a free-of-charge final remedy at a future date. We will notify you again via first-class mail when the final remedy is available.
