Subject: Safety Recall 45F5 - ABS Control Module Software
Certain 2009 Model Year Audi A3

Dear Audi Owner,

This notice is sent to you in accordance with the National Traffic and Motor Vehicle Safety Act. Audi has decided that a defect, which relates to motor vehicle safety, exists in certain 2009 model year Audi A3 vehicles. Our records show that you are the owner of a vehicle affected by this action.

What is the issue? On certain vehicles, a fault within the antilock brake system (ABS) may cause the module to fail during ABS and/or electronic stability control (ESC) activation. This will cause warning lights for ABS, brake and the ESC systems to illuminate. If this happens, the brake system related vehicle stabilizing functions (ABS/ESC) may not be available, increasing the risk of a loss of vehicle control and could lead to a crash causing injury and/or property damage.

What will we do? To help correct this defect, your authorized Audi dealer will update the ABS control module software with improved diagnostic capability to detect insufficient PCU ground connection. ABS modules with insufficient ground connections will be replaced. The software update will take less than an hour to complete; if the ABS module requires replacement, this work can take up to a full day to complete. The recall repair will be performed for you free of charge.

Should there ever be an issue with the ABS control module after the new software is installed, an authorized Audi dealer will cover replacement of the ABS control module if certain, specific fault codes are present at the time of diagnosis.

Please be aware that other conditions (unrelated to the issue described in this letter) may cause the ABS system warning light in your vehicle to illuminate. Customers should be prepared to cover diagnosis and repair costs associated with these other, unrelated conditions.

What should you do? Please contact your authorized Audi dealer without delay to schedule this recall repair. For your convenience, you can also visit www.audiusa.com and click on the "Find a Dealer" link to locate a dealer near you and schedule this service.
