TAKATA PARTS ALLOCATION PLAN

GUIDE TO ALLOCATION AND CUSTOMER COMMUNICATION

TOP TAKEAWAYS

- NHTSA (National Highway Traffic Safety Administration) has updated the priority groupings and schedule for repairing vehicles that are part of the ongoing Takata air bag recall.
- The factors that determine the priority groupings are the age of inflators, geographic location of the inflator (focus on high humidity areas) and the location of the inflator in the vehicle (driver side, passenger side or both).
- Review the priority group schedule and status, along with the customer communication plan here and reference the attached bulletins for more detailed information about specific vehicles impacted by the Takata recall.
- Discuss this information with your team and with customers who ask, to help them understand the timing and process for their vehicle's replacement parts.
- Note that per NHTSA, the earliest estimated time of propellant deterioration is six years, which may reassure some concerned customers.

MORE DETAILS

The core issue: Desiccant is a substance with properties that enables it to soak up water vapor from the air surrounding it. Interim replacement parts are non-desiccated air bags. All vehicles that receive an interim air bag must still have the final replacement part installed. NHTSA determined the priority for these replacements.

The relevance of geography: The geographic location of the inflators correlates to the estimated (est.) time when the propellant deteriorates. NHTSA established geographic zones and priority groups, which dictates the timing and prioritization of repairs. Please see the attached Priority Group Info attachment for specific details.

|  | If the customer has not received their final letter, but lives in Zone A and has a 2006 3 Series or 2007 X5, they will receive their final letter in the upcoming months. Once they receive the letter, order the part to repair their vehicle. | Advise them to expect a letter in the next few months indicating replacement parts are available. Once they get the letter, they should call to schedule an appointment for the free repair.  |
|  | If the customer has a vehicle other than a Zone A 2006 3 Series or 2007 X5, explain the prioritization schedule.  | Advise them that as soon as replacement parts become available, they will receive a notification letter via First-Class Mail. Based on the vehicle and the priority group schedule published by NHTSA, we anticipate that this will be some time after the launch date of [check priority group table below]. The highest risk registered vehicles, i.e., oldest models in highest absolute humidity (HAH) areas (e.g., USA Gulf states) have priority. The letter will include details on how to obtain a replacement airbag. We greatly appreciate your patience as you wait for receipt of the letter. |
| 16V-364PriorityGroup4-10                   | Please note that final letters have not been mailed to customers. They have received the interim letter notifying them their vehicle is involved in this recall.  | A limited number of interim remedy passenger's front air bags are available. The time to perform the repair may take several hours, therefore please advise customers to wait until a final part is available.  |

| OtherInfo | The meaning of "ever-registered."                      | BMW NA has a process to check the state where a vehicle was registered prior to its current registration state. Any vehicle ever registered in a Zone A state will have priority.  |
