Safety Recall H0C (Interim H1C)
Certain 2016 - 2017 Model Year Tundra
Resin Rear Bumper Reinforcement Brackets

To enable dealers to repair vehicles involved in the Safety Recall when the remedy is launched, Toyota is currently pre-deploying an initial stock of remedy parts kits in preparation for the launch of the remedy. Depending on dealer location, these parts will begin to arrive at dealers starting on April 10, 2017.

- Each dealer in the Continental US will receive at least one of each part number to enable the dealer to begin fixing customer vehicles.
- Each dealer in the Continental US with vehicles on stop sale will receive a quantity of parts equal to their stop sale inventory.
- Dealers should prioritize customer vehicles.

Part Number	Part Description	Qty Per Vehicle
04007-0910C	Rear bumper reinforcement kit - without sonar	1
04007-0920C	Rear bumper reinforcement kit - with sonar	1

NOTE:

- The pre-deployment part kits WILL NOT arrive with regular Toyota parts deliveries.
- Export Markets (SERVCO, Puerto Rico, Saipan, Guam, American Samoa, Nicaragua and Panama) will follow the normal shipping process. Export Markets WILL NOT receive pre-deployed parts.
- These parts kits weigh approximately 50 pounds each, and the box dimensions are approximately: 68" x 36" x 12"
- Customer orders will be Dealer Direct, except for GST/SET and the Export Markets.
