Dear Mercedes-Benz Owner:

This notice is sent to you in accordance with the requirements of the National Traffic and Motor Vehicle Safety Act.

Daimler AG (DAG), the manufacturer of Mercedes-Benz vehicles, has decided that certain Model Year 2016 G-Class vehicles fail to conform with the requirements of Federal Motor Vehicle Safety Standard (FMVSS) number 206, "Door Locks and Door Retention Components". Our records indicate that your vehicle is included in the affected population of vehicles.

What is the CONCERN?

On certain 2016 G-Class vehicles, the cable that unlatches the door when the inner door handle is pulled, may break if the door latch is jammed, as with a damaged door latch after a crash. If the cable breaks and the door cannot be opened from inside the vehicle after a crash, the risk of injury for the occupants increases.

What will your DEALER DO?

An authorized Mercedes-Benz dealer will replace the door latch bowden cables on the affected vehicles. This service will be provided free of charge. We are dedicated to always delivering the best customer experience, and respect for your time is a top priority. While the minimum repair time is approximately 3 hours, your dealer can provide you with a better estimate of the overall time for this service visit. As a matter of normal service process, an authorized Mercedes-Benz dealer will also check for other repair measures which might be applicable to your vehicle and this may increase the required working time.

What should YOU DO?

To find the most convenient authorized Mercedes-Benz dealer from your smartphone, scan the QR code to the left.

For additional information and to schedule an appointment, please contact your preferred authorized Mercedes-Benz dealer at your earliest convenience. To locate authorized dealers see www.mbusa.com/recall. Please mention you are scheduling an appointment to replace the door latch Bowden cables under Recall Campaign # 2017030019.

You may be asked for your 17-digit Vehicle Identification Number (VIN) which for your convenience is located above your name at the top of this letter.
