A Recall has been issued for your Santa Fe's Seat Belt Anchor Bolt.

This notice applies to your vehicle, VIN ending in: 014089

What is the problem?

The driver's seat belt anchor bolt may not have been properly torqued during vehicle assembly. This condition would enable the seatbelt to detach from the anchor point in a collision, increasing risk of injury.

What will Hyundai do?

Your Hyundai dealer will inspect and verify proper connection between the driver's seat belt anchor and the vehicle's inner sill structure. This procedure will be performed at NO CHARGE to you. For your safety, schedule an appointment as soon as possible.
