

2017 MY Sorento 3.3L Lambda Engine
Basis of Safety Defect Determination 573.6(c)(6)

July 5, 2017	Customer contacts Kia Motors America, Inc.'s (KMA) Consumer Affairs (CA) and reports "after engine blew the vehicle caught fire." Customer reports first degree burn to his left leg while trying to retrieve documents out of glove box.
July 5, 2017	Customer files vehicle owner questionnaire (VOQ) with NHTSA.
July 6 –July 21, 2017	KMA collects all available information relating to incident and escalates case for review.
July 21, 2017	KMA provides customer complaint information to Kia Motors Manufacturing Georgia (KMMG) for further evaluation.
July 25, 2017	KMA advises KMMG of second fire incident.
August 7- September 8, 2017	KMMG works with KMC to evaluate cause of fire.
September 14, 2017	KMC makes decision to conduct safety recall. Two (2) customer complaints; one (1) first degree burn injury.