Descriptive Information : Not all vehicles in the specified production date range are affected by this recall. This recall affects Takata Non-Desiccated Frontal Passenger-side Air Bag Inflators containing Phase Stabilized Ammonium Nitrate for Zone C, for vehicles not already covered under NHTSA Campaign Numbers 14V763, 15V323, 16V361, and 17V016. Zone C includes states with lower temperature cycling and absolute humidity. It includes: Alaska, Colorado, Connecticut, Idaho, Iowa, Maine, Massachusetts, Michigan, Minnesota, Montana, New Hampshire, New York, North Dakota, Oregon, Rhode Island, South Dakota, Utah, Vermont, Washington, Wisconsin, and Wyoming.

[April 23, 2018] - This submission is to inform of Subaru's intent to implement the "other" reporting category for removed vehicles in Quarterly Reporting as permitted in the Third Amendment to the Coordinated Remedy Order ("ACRO"), Paragraphs 45 through 49. As a condition of the ACRO, all affected vehicles will remain active, or "live," across Subaru's data systems such that any search of "other" removed VINs will return an open recall status. For this reason, the number of potentially involved vehicles in this report will remain the same. Future changes to overall Total Removed counts, including "other," will be reflected in quarterly reporting.

Description of Defect :

Description of the Defect : Takata has submitted DIR 18E-003 (Zone C) in accordance with the terms specified in the May 4, 2016 Amendment to the November 3, 2015 Consent Order in EA15-001.

Subaru is submitting this DIR in accordance with section 46 of Coordinated Remedy Order.

FMVSS 1 : NR

FMVSS 2 : NR

Description of the Safety Risk : Activation of a non-desiccated ammonium nitrate inflator with degraded propellant may result in an inflator rupture. An inflator rupture may cause metal fragments to pass through the air bag and into the vehicle interior at high speed, which may result in injury or death to vehicle occupants.

Description of the Cause : Based upon Takata's investigation to date, the propellant wafers in some of the subject inflators may degrade over time, which could lead to overaggressive combustion in the event the air bag is activated. Overly aggressive combustion creates excessive internal pressure when the inflator is activated, which may cause the inflator body to rupture.

Identification of Any Warning that can Occur : None.

Chronology :

November 3, 2015 - NHTSA and Takata entered into a Consent Order in EA15-001 to resolve issues raised in that investigation, to mitigate and control risks of harm, and to promote public safety.

May 4, 2016 - NHTSA and Takata entered into an Amendment to the November 3, 2015 Consent Order. As stated in that Amendment, on the basis of testing and analysis conducted by Takata and by independent research organizations, NHTSA has concluded that, "at some point in the future all non-desiccated frontal Takata PSAN inflators will reach a threshold level of degradation that could result in the inflator becoming unreasonably dangerous." As a result of this conclusion, and pursuant to Paragraph 29 of the November 3, 2015 Consent Order, NHTSA ordered Takata to file certain defect information reports ("DIR"), in accordance with the schedule set forth in Paragraph 14 of the Amendment.

May 16, 2016 - As specified in that schedule, Takata submitted the DIR.

May 20, 2016 - Subaru has determined to launch recall according to Section 46 of Coordinated Remedy Order.

January 3, 2017 - As specified in that schedule, Takata submitted the DIR.

January 10, 2017 - Subaru has determined to launch recall according to Section 32 of 3rd amended Coordinated Remedy Order.

January 2, 2018 - As specified in that schedule, Takata submitted the DIR.

January 9, 2018 - Subaru has determined to launch recall according to Section 32 of 3rd amended Coordinated Remedy Order.
