Chronology :

On September 21, 2017, Forest River submitted a recall report (17V-585) to address an issue related to the strength of washers used to mounting bus seats to the floor of the vehicle. During manufacturing by the sub-supplier, the washers had been over heat treated and became brittle. Forest River initiated an investigation when it became aware of a small number of instances where the washers failed during the installation during production, but was not aware of any field incidents. Forest River's investigation limited the issue to a particular batch of washers which were quarantined and discarded. On May 25, 2017, during a meeting with the sub-supplier, Forest River uncovered that the same washers had also been used to install the seat belt assembly at the driver's seat. At the time of the original investigation, Forest River was not aware of any issues concerning the washers when installing the seat belt assemblies and is currently not aware of any reports or incidents involving the washers in the seat belt assemblies. Forest River has confirmed that the washers from this sub-supplier have not been used for any other purpose in the vehicles.

On June 1, 2018, Forest River's Corporate Committee decided to conduct a recall to address the issue.

On June 29, 2018, Forest River identified three duplicate VINs; the scope of vehicles has been lowered to 704 from 707 vehicles.
