Subject: Safety Recall 1902 – Electric (After-run) Coolant Pump
Certain 2012-2017 Model Year Audi Vehicles with a 2.0L TFSI Gasoline Engine

Dear Audi Owner,

This notice is sent to you in accordance with the National Traffic and Motor Vehicle Safety Act. Audi has decided that a defect, which relates to motor vehicle safety, exists in certain 2012-2017 model year Audi vehicles with a 2.0L TFSI gasoline engine. Our records show that you are the owner of a vehicle affected by this action.

Why you are receiving this recall notice

The electric (after-run) coolant pump in your vehicle is being recalled due to the safety defect described in this letter.

- Owners of affected vehicles were notified in September 2018 and advised about the interim repair available (Safety Recall 19N4) to disconnect the power to the electric (after-run) coolant pump to remove the safety defect. Our records show that recall work was not performed on your vehicle.
- Audi has replacement electric (after-run) coolant pumps available and the repair to replace the pump in your vehicle is available now.

What is the issue?

In certain vehicles with a 2.0L TFSI gasoline engine, the electric (after-run) coolant pump may short circuit and/or overheat, potentially leading to a vehicle fire.

What we will do

Your authorized Audi dealer will replace the electric (after-run) coolant pump for FREE. This work will take about one (1) hour to complete.

What you should do

Please contact your authorized Audi dealer to schedule this recall repair without delay. For your convenience, you can visit www.audiusa.com and click on the "Find a Dealer" link to locate a dealer near you and schedule this work.

Precautions you should take

Until the recall work is done, you should park outdoors as a precaution in case of a vehicle fire due to the safety defect.

Lease vehicles and address changes

If you are the lessor and registered owner of the vehicle identified in this action, the law requires you to forward this letter immediately via first-class mail to the lessee within ten (10) days of receipt. If you have changed your address or sold the vehicle, please fill out the enclosed prepaid Owner Reply card and mail it to us so we can update our records.
