Since filing the original Defect Information Report (NHTSA ID 18V-068) on January 25, 2018, Honda has finalized the VIN range, the dates of manufacture, description of how the vehicles being recalled differ from similar vehicles not included in the recall, and the total number of potentially affected vehicles involved in this recall. The identification of potentially affected vehicles and the total number of potentially affected vehicles are being amended to reflect this update.

573.6(c)(2)

Identification of potentially affected vehicles:

See below for VIN range and date of manufacture updates.

Make / Model	Previous VIN Range / Dates of Manufacture	New / Current VIN Range / Dates of Manufacture
2017 Honda Clarity Fuel Cell	TBD	JHMZC4F74HT000005 - JHMZC4F73HT000478 11/17/2016 to 7/20/2017

Description of how the vehicles being recalled differ from similar vehicles not included in the recall:

Honda identified seven 2016MY Clarity Fuel Cell vehicles affected by the recall. These units are not for sale in the U.S. but are American Honda owned and will receive the software update and/or be scrapped.
