Subject: Safety Recall 42L1 – Rear Axle Trailing Arm Lock Nut

Dear Audi Owner,

This notice is sent to you in accordance with the National Traffic and Motor Vehicle Safety Act. Audi has decided that a defect, which relates to motor vehicle safety, exists in certain 2019-2021 model year Audi vehicles. Our records show that you are the owner of a vehicle affected by this action.

Audi of America, Inc.

What is the issue? Due to stress corrosion cracking on lock nuts of particular production batches, the nut of the excentric bolt on the trailing arm of the rear axle may break which may cause alterations in the wheel alignment of the rear axle. This could be noticed by a steering wheel misalignment when driving straight ahead or by the vehicle pulling to one side when braking or accelerating.

The rear axle could suddenly and uncontrollably move in the wrong direction at higher speeds. This can lead to a loss of vehicle control and a crash without warning.

What will we do? To correct this defect, your authorized Audi dealer will replace the affected lock nut. If the screw connection is already damaged, it will be replaced completely. This work will take about an hour to complete and will be performed for you free of charge. Please keep in mind that your dealer may need additional time for the preparation of the repair, as well as to accommodate their daily workshop schedule.

What should you do? Please contact your authorized Audi dealer without delay to schedule this recall repair. For your convenience, you can also visit www.audiusa.com and click on the “Find a Dealer” link to locate a dealer near you and schedule this service.

Precautions you should take If this condition is present in the vehicle, the driver may notice a steering wheel misalignment when driving straight ahead or the vehicle pulling to one side when braking or accelerating. Should this occur, owners are advised to contact an authorized Audi dealer without delay and make arrangements to have the vehicle inspected/repaired.
