IMPORTANT SAFETY RECALL

Wheel Studs

Dear [Name],

This notice is sent to you in accordance with the National Traffic and Motor Vehicle Safety Act.

FCA US has decided that a defect, which relates to motor vehicle safety, exists in certain [2012 – 2020 Model Year (D2) Ram 3500 Pickup, (DD) Ram 3500 Cab Chassis, and (DP) Ram 4500/5500 Cab Chassis] trucks.

It is extremely important to take steps now to repair your vehicle to ensure the safety of you and your passengers.

WHY DOES MY VEHICLE NEED REPAIRS?

The flanged wheel lug nuts on your vehicle ^[1] may have been over-torqued during service to an incorrect torque specification in the Service & Owner's manual, which can yield a wheel stud. A yielded wheel stud may eventually break, which could lead to a wheel separating from the vehicle during operation. A wheel separating from the vehicle could cause a vehicle crash without prior warning and/or the wheel/tire could pose a risk to other vehicles or pedestrians.

HOW DO I RESOLVE THIS IMPORTANT SAFETY ISSUE?

FCA US will repair your vehicle ^[2] free of charge (parts and labor). To do this, your dealer will inspect all the wheel studs and update the torque specification in the owner's information. If any wheel stud is found to be potentially yielded, it will be replaced and the lug nuts will be tightened to the updated torque specification. The estimated repair time is about 2 hours. In addition, your dealer will require your vehicle for proper check-in, preparation, and check-out during your visit, which may require more time. Your time is important to us, so we recommend that you schedule a service appointment to minimize your inconvenience. Please bring this letter with you to your dealership.

Please note that your vehicle might have been sold under a second stage manufacturer brand name and is different than the model indicated above. However, your vehicle has to be serviced at an authorized Chrysler / Dodge / Jeep® / RAM / BusinessLink Dealership for all FCA recalls.
