RE: Brake Reservoir Fluid Cap Recall -Follow up

Dear Dealers,

Following the enclosed communication regarding the Brake Reservoir Fluid Cap Recall, please be informed that before you deliver a new or used vehicle identified on the list of affected Ferrari models, you MUST replace the brake fluid reservoir cap with the replacement cap bearing part number 810768. This is the same part number used on recall 78.

By Monday August 8th, we will ship out a sufficient quantity of replacement caps. Please inform your clients that their vehicle featuring the replacement cap will be recalled to your workshop to update the vehicle's software once available.

Please contact your ABM directly should you have any questions.

Sincerely,

Enzo Francesconi
