Why is your vehicle being recalled?

These vehicles may have a condition in which the front impact bar, a structural portion of the vehicle frame, may be improperly welded to the front frame rail. This defect may be present on the right-hand and/or left-hand side of the vehicle. If the front impact bar is improperly welded, front crash sensors may not perform as designed which may undermine occupant protection performance and increase the risk of injury in a frontal crash.

What will we do?

Your GM dealer will inspect the right-hand and left-hand side of the vehicle’s motor rail for an incomplete weld, for free. If the condition is found, the vehicle will be repurchased by GM. This service will be performed for you at no charge.
