

IMPORTANT SAFETY RECALL

This notice applies to your car seat
NHTSA Recall Numbers 23C-002 and 23C-003

March 24, 2023

This notice is sent to you in accordance with the requirements of the National Traffic and Motor Vehicle Safety Act. Dorel Juvenile Group, Inc. in the U.S.A. (DJ USA) has decided all Maxi-Cosi Coral XP rear facing infant car seat model IC313's sold in the U.S.A. fail to conform to the requirements of Federal Motor Vehicle Safety Standard (FMVSS) No. 213 "Child Restraint Systems". According to our records, your car seat is affected.

When the child seat is installed into the vehicle with the base secured using the lower anchors, the child seat may detach which will not adequately protect the child from injury in the event of a crash. Also, if only the inner carrier is installed into the vehicle the Coral XP will not adequately protect the child from injury in the event of a crash. The inner carrier of the Coral XP may continue to be used when attached to the outer carrier and the outer carrier is installed with or without the base using the vehicle belt restraint system, consistent with the existing instruction booklet and labels. DJ USA will provide Coral XP owners a refund or replacement car seat free of charge.

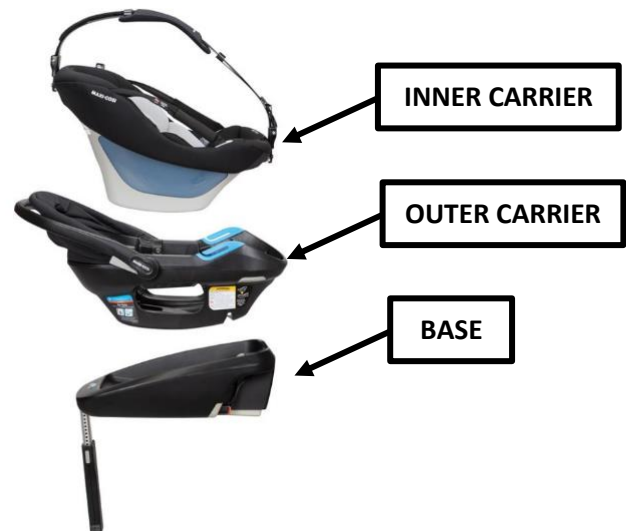

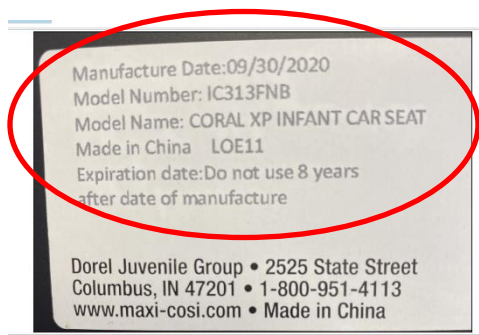

The below model numbers are affected for all dates of manufacture ranging from May 1, 2020 to February 28th, 2023.

IC313FNA, IC313FNB, IC313FNC, IC313FND, IC313GHT

Some recalled models were purchased at retailers together with a stroller as part of a Travel System, including Maxi-Cosi Tayla XP and Mara XT Travel System using the below model numbers:

TR433FNA, TR433FND, TR434FNA

To confirm your car seat is affected, please locate your product's model number and date of manufacture by looking at the label included on the outer carrier of the shell of your car seat as shown below:
