This notice applies to your car seat
NHTSA Recall No. 23C002

June 6, 2023

This notice is sent to you in accordance with the requirements of the National Traffic and Motor Vehicle Safety Act. Dorel Juvenile Group, Inc. in the U.S.A. (DJ USA) has decided all models of Safety 1st onBoard 35 SecureTech and SecureTech infant base as well as Maxi-Cosi Mico XP, Mico XP Max, and Mico Luxe+ and Maxi-Cosi infant base, that include self-retracting lower anchor systems in the base, fail to comply with the requirements of Federal Motor Vehicle Safety Standard (FMVSS) No. 213 “Child Restraint Systems”. The lower anchors used to secure the child seat base may fail allowing the child seat to detach. A detached child seat may not properly restrain the occupant, increasing the risk of injury in a crash.

Please find enclosed the free replacement base, sent in accordance with your registration for the above recall. Please refer to your original instruction booklet for installation of your car seat with this replacement base using the LATCH system or vehicle belt restraint system. If you are currently using your car seat with the original recalled base installed with the vehicle belt restraint system, please discontinue use, and remove the anchors by cutting the straps as shown below. Once the anchors are removed and deactivated, you may dispose of or recycle the base and connectors. If you have any questions regarding disposition, please consult your local waste management guidelines.
