Dear Volvo Retailer Partner

Volvo Cars USA LLC and Volvo Cars Canada LTD on behalf of the Volvo Car Corporation has decided to launch Recall R10292: EX90 second row bolts on certain model year 2025 EX90 vehicles.

Volvo Car Investigations have determined that the second-row free-standing seat attaching bolts may have not been tightened to manufacturing specification.

As a result, incorrectly torqued seat attaching bolts can potentially affect the second-row free-standing seat integrity in a vehicle crash, thereby increasing the risk of vehicle occupant injury.

To remedy concerned vehicles, Volvo Cars will inspect the second-row free-standing seat attaching bolts and torque to 40Nm.

Volvo Cars centrally has not received any reports alleging injuries, fatalities, or crashes related to this condition.

A total of 11 U.S. and 1 Canadian vehicles are affected by this recall.

NEW VEHICLES IN RETAILER INVENTORY

It is a violation of Federal law for a retailer to deliver any new Volvo that is eligible for a recall. Retailers are advised to check all vehicles in inventory for recall eligibility and repair immediately. Violation of this requirement by a retailer could result in a civil penalty of up to $26,315.00 per violation. Correct all vehicles in your new vehicle inventory before delivery.

USED VEHICLES IN RETAILER INVENTORY

Volvo Car USA is ordering the stop-delivery of affected vehicles in auction and retailer inventory until the recalled item can be repaired.

Stopping the delivery of affected used vehicles until the recall is complete is consistent with Volvo's commitment to safety. Additionally, while Federal law does not prohibit the sale of used vehicles with open recalls, the sale of such cars could violate certain state laws and create liability on behalf of the retailer.

What does this mean for customers?

- Recall R10292 eligible vehicles not yet delivered to customer must be corrected prior to delivery.
