

6:26

5G 95%

Home

Action required: The 919A update is available for your ID.4

Software update 3.5.11 is available for your vehicle.

This software update completes the 919A recall and provides improvements to the vehicle center and instrument panel displays, including improvements to the rearview camera. It also includes bug fixes and enhances multiple systems. This update is a prerequisite for future updates. For more details, refer to the web link below.