Dear Peterbilt Customer,

This notice is sent to you in accordance with the National Traffic and Motor Vehicle Safety Act.

Peterbilt Motors Company has decided that certain Vehicle Model Year 2023-2026, models 520 / 535 / 536 / 537 / 548 / 567 / 579 / 589 vehicles manufactured between 05/27/2022 and 05/23/2025 equipped with Ethernet Multiplexed Architecture (EMUX) and Vehicle Electronic Control Unit (VECU) part number Q21-1157 fail to conform to Federal Motor Vehicle Safety Standard (FMVSS) No.108, "Lamps, reflective devices, and associated equipment". Delayed or unsteady illumination of the vehicle's stop lamps, reverse lamps, turn signal lamps, and inadvertent change in headlamp illumination or lift axle position may occur due to the VECU software configuration. This can occur without warning and may increase the risk of a crash. In addition, an unexpected position change of the lift axles may increase the risk of injury.

What is the problem?	Delayed or unsteady illumination of the vehicle's stop lamps, reverse lamps, turn signal lamps and inadvertent change in headlamp illumination or lift axle position.
What will your dealer do?	When parts and procedures are available, dealers will update your vehicle's software and replace parts as necessary.
What should you do?	No action is required at this time. When parts and procedures are available, contact your Peterbilt Dealer to schedule the repair.

Peterbilt has initiated this recall to remedy the issue at no charge to you. Currently, parts and procedures are unavailable to correct this condition. However, Peterbilt is required to notify customers of the existence of the identified safety defect. You will be notified by mail when parts and procedures become available.
