

SAFETY RECALL N972 – TOUCHSCREEN BLANK ON START-UP

SAFETY RECALL N972 TOUCHSCREEN BLANK ON START-UP
AFFECTED MODELS	23MY Range Rover Evoque and Discovery Sport 23–24MY Defender
VOLUME AFFECTED	28,370 USA 2,950 CAN
REPAIR	Certain vehicles with a 10-inch Touchscreen may experience a blank screen on start-up and throughout the drive cycle. Several vehicle modules require TOPIx software updates. The software fix for sold units is also included in SOTA campaign S028 4.3.0 which commenced deployment February 10 th 2025.
REPAIR TIME	Up to 1.1 hrs + DIDO
CAMPAIGN LAUNCH	January 29th, 2025
NOTES	Retailers are instructed to not sell or deliver any affected vehicles under their control until the recall repair has been completed. As of February 3rd, there are 276 US, and 1 CAN affected vehicles in retailer unsold new inventory. Sold vehicles may be updated by clients via the SOTA campaign or at the next retailer service visit. Clients will be notified via mail on or before March 14th, 2025.