Defect / Noncompliance Description

Description of the defect or noncompliance:

When the driver quickly shifts into Reverse within one second right after turning the engine OFF/ON (without the car going to sleep), a software issue may prevent the rearview camera image from displaying.

FMVSS1: 111 - Rear visibility

FMVSS2:

Description of the safety risk, including crash, fire, death, injury:

A rearview camera image that does not display decreases the driver's visibility, increasing the risk of a crash.

Description of the cause:

Due to a software error, during the specific restart scenario, the ECU which manages the rear view camera may exit the camera display logic.

Identification of any warning that can occur:

If this occurs, the driver will notice the rearview camera image is not displayed. Owners who may experience this issue are advised to use extra caution when reversing, and they should contact an authorized Lamborghini dealer without delay to have the vehicle diagnosed.

Chronology

May 2025: During internal testing activities, Lamborghini identified on an internal vehicle, a possible condition in which the rearview camera image was not displaying in the infotainment system. Lamborghini started an investigation in order to assess the influencing factors and possible related hardware and software configurations. No cases or complaints were received from the field so far.

From May 2025 to December 2025: Lamborghini monitored the field while performing technical analysis to identify the root cause.

January 2026: The technical analysis confirmed that on one specific software version and car configuration, the ECU which manages the rear view camera may exit the camera display logic in a certain use scenario, preventing the rearview camera image from displaying. Further investigation was carried out to identify the number of vehicles in the field with the software version and configuration affected.

January 22, 2026: The Lamborghini Product Safety Committee determined that the issue constitutes a noncompliance in the United States and decided a noncompliance recall.

Lamborghini is not aware of any crashes, injuries or property damage complaints related to this issue.

Date of determination: January 22, 2026
